Women, Men and Strife Poets May Say It Wise Young Dinosaur Soldiers With Books

—By Arthur Brisbane—

THE BRITISH BISHOP of Manchester fears "strife for mastery between men and women."

That strife will never be dangerous. Women manufacture the work and men do the work.

Man hasn't the faintest chance of competing with woman in motherhood. No woman has ever competed with men in what we call works of genius. There never has existed even a fifth rate woman painter, writer, sculptor or musician.

Men and women supplement each other and get along very nicely.

Woman comes first, for the creator is greater than the thing created. Michelangelo was greater than his finest works. His mother was greater than he.

A poet may say:

"I am the master of my fate,
"I am the captain of my soul"

but it is unwise for a lady who wants to testify in court at Charlotte, N. C., to take that stand.

Mrs. Miller, 30 years old, called "Communist labor agitator," told the court that "man controls his own destiny." She is impeached as an atheist, therefore not worthy to be a witness.

Russia's government, going in the other direction, is opening nine more "anti-religious universities" to preach atheism.

Russian trade union organizations are ordered to appropriate from "cultural funds" a sum every month for organization of militant atheists.

Organized atheism will not go far.

And organized intolerance killing a man what he may or may not believe in the United States, will not go far either.

Samuel Insull, Jr., following in his father's industrial dinosaur tracks as president of the Midland United Company of Chicago, tells the American Gas Association that to boom the gas industry and increase sales they must cut prices and use persuasive advertising and proper salesmanship.

If young Mr. Insull follows out those ideas, he will be a big industrial dinosaur some day.

Nearly all young Russians go through military service, and soon Russia will have 5,000,000 trained soldiers under 30 years of age. That interests western Europe. Such a crowd starting westward with tanks, flying machines and modern equipment would call for attention.

The young soldiers are taught that capitalism plans to crush Russia, which it doesn't. It is only planning to do business in Russia.

Soldiers are told also that their duty is to make the proletariat, the laboring class—rulers of the entire world.

The feet once complained they were tired of carrying all the load and that it was time for the head to do the carrying.

But the head is still on top and the feet still carry the load.

Wherever they go Russian soldiers take books with them.

In Canada, Ramsay MacDonald, member of the Socialist party, addressing labor unions, tells them that changes must be made by evolution, not by revolution. That's how they have been made in the past.

It is suggested that space above the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad terminal in New York city be used "for sporting arena to seat 50,000."

The plan is that space belonging to the Pennsylvania be used for a prize fight ring, with seats around, the other sports being introduced to help with the overhead when no profitable prize fight is available.

Prize fighting is far from railroading. It seems unlikely that General Atterbury, head of the Pennsylvania Railroad, will devote any considerable part of the Pennsylvania property to prize fight purposes.

The space might be valuable later as an air mail landing. It will be big enough after the "straight up and down" helicopter type of flying machine is perfected.

Why not a first-class office building or hotel now, with the roof reserved for airplanes? That would be in keeping with the Pennsylvania's program of progress. A gathering place for prize fights would not be in keeping.

Monjar of Decimo Fame Behind New Club

MEMBERS PAY $10 DOWN FOR BUSINESS 'SUCCESS'

$3 Monthly Fee for Advice and Contacts Leading to High Positions

After being out of the public eye for many months, Hugh B. Monjar has come to notice again, this time in New York, as head of a "Success Club" to aid young men to become wealthy and independent—at $10 down and $3 a month.

Monjar was founder and president of the recent, but now defunct, Decima Club for which former Atty.-Gen. Arthur K. Reading was counsel in Massachusetts—a connection chiefly responsible for impeachment proceedings brought against him.

Under his new plan, according to the New York Herald-Tribune, Monjar has formed an organization called H. B. Monjar & Co., Inc., with New York offices in the new Chanin Building in East Forty-second st., and at 21 East Fortieth.

There also is an office in Newark, and at all of these places, it has been learned, "bright young men" between 21 and 40 years of age who wish to form "important contacts" with others just as bright are being signed as their first step toward success.

50 INITIATED.

The new organization became known through a meeti of successendeavorers in Rumford hall, East 41st st., where 50 new young and eager candidates for success were initiated—at $10 each.

Subsequent investigation disclosed that nothing is promised the success aspirants but the opportunity to associate with other men who also have become imbued with the magic spark and who like to wear a badge.

It also was revealed that every member of the "Success Club" enrolled is pledged to secrecy, because one of the major attributes for success in the ability to keep a business secret.

Candidates are asked when spoken for as prospective members by men already in the organization whether they are prepared to sacrifice time and effort to reach their goal.

MUST PAY PROMPTLY

The principal sacrifice impressed upon them, investigators learned, is that they must pay their $3 monthly dues in the organization promptly or they will be dropped.

For their $10 initiation fee they become members and for their $3 each month, the eager young men have the privilege of meeting once a week and mingling with the other eager young men.

At the meeting, speakers, most of whom are unidentified until the meeting night, impart the principles of business success.

Monjar himself, although head of the organization an a magic name among the ambitious members,

BORAH PREDICTS TARIFF BILL TO SUIT HOOVER

Insurgent Leader Called to White House for Conference on Pending Bill

Washington, Oct. 17—Senator Borah of Idaho said after a call at the White House today that he believed a tariff bill would be passed by Congress in a shape which would be acceptable to President Hoover.

It was recalled that it was Mr. Borah's first visit to the White House since before the debenture contest over the farm bill.

He said he thought the Senate would pass the tariff measure this session, perhaps by Nov. 20, but that final action on the conference report would be delayed until the regular session in December.

"Do you believe the bill will satisfy the farmers?" He was asked.

"I think it will if it ever passes," he replied.

Apparently perturbed over the Democratic-Progressive coalition attitude on the tariff bill, and particularly over the threat to re-enact the debenture plan as a rider, President today first summoned Senator Watson of Indiana, majority leader, for conference.

Not long after Watson departed, the President summoned Borah, who had persistently opposed the high industrial rates of the present measure, and has voted throughout with the Democratic-Progressive coalition.

BIG RUM RING CONTROLLED WHOLE COAST

Imported Virtually All Liquor From Maine to Virginia; Agencies International

Operations of the $1,000,000 rum-smuggling syndicate off Boston and the New England coast were revealed by federal authorities today.

From Maine to the Virginia Capes, the syndicate whose New Jersey headquarters were raided yesterday, virtually controlled all illegal importation of liquor, it was stated.

Foreign agencies in England and Canada were also linked with the syndicate which directed its fleet of ships by code from a hidden radio station on the Jersey coast, maintained a fortified arsenal at Highlands and stored most of its imports in a string of warehouses between Highlands and Atlantic City.

In New York city today both U.S. Atty. Charles Haas Tuttle and Asst. U.S. Atty. Robert Watts referred to the syndicate as "an international ring, with agencies in England, Canada and elsewhere."

Watts said the ring had "financial connections with American banks, but whether this meant that the banks were actually engaged in financing its operations or merely carried its accounts was not made clear.

"This ring not only was conducting smuggling or contraband on an enormous scale, with ramifications in England, Canada and elsewhere," said Tuttle, "but was, by practices which will be revealed in the course

Find Body of Woman, Headless

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 17—Gruesome borgh police today were faced with their second mysterious murder within a month in discovery of the headless body of a young woman in a clump of weeds near the St. Andrew's Golf Club at Mt. Hope.

A wedding ring and a diamond and another ring from which a stone had been removed from the setting are the only clues.

County Medical Examiner Duffy said the woman has been dead some time. No identification was found near by. Police are searching for the most possible means of identification.

Less than a month ago Mrs. Elsa Marshall, 24, was found an unknown assailant in a wood in Greenburgh.

Within the last few months several violent crimes have occurred in the town of Greenburgh.

It was a thrilling reunion for Jeanette, but not for her mother, who was waiting for an explanation.

SNOW FALLS IN NEW ENGLAND

New England's first snowfall of the year was reported today in the Boston office of the weather bureau by observers in Portland and Northfield, Vt.

Snow also fell at Keene, N. H.

The temperature at both places was well above freezing and the snow, which fell for a short time, soon disappeared.

There is no possibility of snow in the vicinity of Boston at the present time, weather bureau officials stated. The official forecast for the new 24 hours predicts fair weather tonight and Friday, lower temperatures tonight and probably light to moderate gales.

The minimum temperature this morning was 47 degrees, the lowest in the weather bureau's records on this date in other years the temperature has been as low as 28 degrees.

BINGHAM IN HEATED CLASH DEFENDS HIRING TARIFF LOBBYIST

EVANSON SAT IN SECRET HEARINGS

Senator [illegible] Broke Laws Agents Employe Names Were Bill

Washington, Oct. 17. When Senator Bingham, Republican, Connecticut, member of the senate committee investigating lobbyists, asked Clarence Eyanson, one of the lobbyists, to name the persons who were employing him before the committee, Eyanson refused.

Bingham insisted that Eyanson name the persons who were employing him before the committee. Eyanson refused.

"I decline to answer," Eyanson said.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, member of the committee, then asked Eyanson if he did not feel that he was violating the laws of the United States in refusing to answer the question.

Eyanson replied that he did not feel that he was violating any laws.

Bingham then asked Eyanson if he was employed by any of the senate finance committee.

Eyanson refused to answer this question.

MRS. SANCTUARY'S SUIT "ALL BUNK," SAYS MILLIONAIRE CARY

NEVER EVEN KISSED HER, HE SAYS

But Admits Paying Her More "on the Quiet" Than Other Employes Received

Providence, Oct. 17—I never kissed Mrs. Grace L. Sanctuary. I never proposed marriage to her. I never took any liberties with her, and her charges against me are absolutely false and are bunk.

In reading terms Edwin F. Cary, dapper millionaire realtor, testified today in the superior court in the $200,000 breach of promise suit brought by his former stenographer.

"Did you ever take any liberties with her in your office such as kissing her, as she has testified?" asked counsel of Cary.

"I did not that is absolutely false and the bunk," he replied.

Q—Did you give her an engagement ring in April, 1923, at your camp, "The Port of Missing Men," as she has testified? A—I did not. That is false. I never did such a thing and never had it in my brain to do it. I never gave a ring to any woman except the two women I married.

Q—Did you ever see the ring Mrs. Sanctuary claims you gave her as an engagement ring. A—Not until I saw it exhibited here in court at the first trial of this case two years ago.

Q—Did you ever suggest marriage to her, at any time? A—Positively no.

DISPUTES "DADDY" STORY.

Q—Did you ever visit her at her Vineyard at home? A—Yes.

Q—Why did you go there? A—I intended to give a stag party at the Agawam Hunt Club to 25 or 40 men and wanted to look at some music she said she had as it was to prepare the musical program for the party. When I visited her home Mrs. Sanctuary picked out a piece of sheet music called "There Are Smiles." I took the air and wrote some verses for the stag party. She played the air on the piano to make sure the words jingled with the music.

Q—Did you ever tell her children, Jane and Harriet to call you "Daddy Cary"? A—No. I did not hear that term until I heard it in court.

Q—Did you take her to your summer home, "Roseacre" in Centerbrook, to get a doll's bed and give it to her children, as she testified? A—I did not.

Q—Did you take her to Northampton at the time of her father's funeral. A—I had business up that way and did so to save her expense.

Q—Did you kiss her at the grave of her mother while in the cemetery at Northampton preparing for the burial of her father? A—I positively did not, that is more bunk.

PAID HER $25 WEEKLY.

Cary testified he took Mrs. Sanctuary and her children to his camp, "The Port of Missing Men," the Sunday following his birthday, April 12, because she had expressed a desire to see the place, and he was going out with a man to install a radio.

Mr. Cary said that when Mrs. Sanctuary applied for a position in his office she asked for a weekly salary of $30, but he told her the stenographers there were paid only $20. He said that, after consulting his brother-in-law, who worked in the office, he compromised on $25 a week, but told Mrs. Sanctuary only $20 would appear on the books and he would make up the rest to her at various times. He explained that because he did not want the other girls in the office to know a new worker could come in and get more money than they were being paid.

LucyBoothSenttoFar Post of the 'Sallies'

London, Oct. 17—Commissioner Lucy Booth Hebberg, youngest daughter of the Salvation Army founder, left today for South America to take up one of the most isolated posts in the army service.

She leaves her child in England and her husband's grave and a home in Sweden.

Weeping and with broken voice, she told an audience of the Salvation Army that shortly before his death Gen. Bramwell Booth appointed her a traveling commissioner in Europe, with headquarters in Stockholm.

She was very happy, she said, but recently Gen. Higgins, new commander-in-chief, ordered her to South America.

Mrs. Hebberg, who is 61 years old, said she carried her problem to her husband's grave and prayed for its solution.

She wrote on the grave a letter of acceptance of the new post in her army superiors. Concluding her address, she held up an army flag and reconsecrated herself with tears to the service.

The audience wept in sympathy.

MRS. McLEAN'S CASE DROPPED

Worcester, Oct. 17—The suit of two New York florists who tried to collect $4800 from Mrs. Edward B. McLean, Newport and Washington society leader, was dismissed today on the ground that Massachusetts courts are busy enough with litigation of state residents without trying to collect the bills of non-residents.

Mrs. McLean's auto was attached several weeks ago.

District Attorney Rugg, counsel for Mrs. McLean, told the court his client is "notoriously wealthy" and termed the attachment and suit a publicity stunt. He alleged his client had never been properly supplied with invoices.

LOWELL WINS LIGHT FIGHT

Lowell, Oct. 17—This city today won a decisive victory in its long fight for a reduction in the rates of the Lowell Electric Light Co.

The new rate, going into effect November 2 eliminates the 50 cents service charge and reduces by 2 cents the present 9-cent rate for the first 25-kilowatt hours.

The new rate calls for a 25 cent minimum charge, 7 cents per kilowatt hour for the first 20 hours and 6 cents per hour thereafter.

The old rate is 75 cents minimum charge, 50 cents service charge, 9 cents per kilowatt hour for the first 25 hours and 7 cents per hour thereafter.

The reduction was announced by the special lighting committee of the City Council which, for several weeks, has been negotiating with Frank D. Comerford, president of the New England Power Association, holding company for the local utility.

DENBY LIKENED OIL LEASE TO DYNAMITE

Dead Naval Secretary's Testimony Is Read at Fall's Bribery Trial

Washington, Oct. 17 (Testimony given by the late Edwin Denby, former Secretary of the Navy, taking responsibility for awarding the Elks Hill-Pearl Harbor contract to the Pan-American Petroleum & Transport Co. today was read to the jury hearing the bribery trial of Albert B. Fall.

Fall is charged with having accepted a $100,000 bribe from Edward L. Doheny for awarding the contract to the Pan American.

Denby's testimony, as given in the Fall-Doheny conspiracy trial, was placed before the jury in its entirety. In it Denby testified he asked the late President Harding to issue an order transferring jurisdiction over the naval oil lands in the Department of the Interior.

"I took the responsibility," Denby said, "and made the leases whether I wanted to or not."

Prosecutor Owen J. Roberts, however, considerably mitigated the weight of Denby's testimony by reading the cross-examination under which the former naval secretary had developed an almost complete lapse of memory. Denby had been unable to remember anything at all about the lease.

Also, under questioning by the prosecution, Denby had admitted he told the navy council he had asked the Interior Department to make the lease "because it was full of dynamite and I wanted to have nothing to do with it."

It was announced that Doheny would testify today.

Jealous of Woman's Husband, Ends Life

FEAR OUTBREAK AT 2 PRISONS IN WEST

Colorado Execution Put Off, and National Guard Ready in Illinois

Denver, Colo., Sept. 17 (AP)—Because he feared further trouble at the Colorado state prison in Canon City, where 15 men recently lost their lives in a convict riot, Governor W. H. Adams has granted a reprieve to Eddie Lee, condemned to hang this week for a murder in Denver.

Warden F. E. Crawford told the Governor that with 250 convicts housed in tents pending reconstruction of buildings burned in the riot, serious disturbances might result from an execution in the prison.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 17 (AP)—Unrest among the 3300 prisoners of the State penitentiary led prison officials today to take action.

The convicts were called together in the mess hall and addressed by Warden Harry Hill.

Members of the Illinois national guard said orders had been issued to be in readiness for emergency calls.

The unrest is due to a State Supreme Court ruling that prisoners serving 20-year to life sentences must serve at least 10 years instead of six before being eligible for parole.

SOCIETY MAN HIT-RUN VICTIM

Chicago, Oct. 17 (AP)—Julius Thompson Benedict, son-in-law of the late Dr. John F. Murphy, was killed by a hit-and-run motorist. His woman companion, Mrs. Wava Rex Hyde, a divorcee, was severely injured.

Mrs. Hyde said she and Benedict were crossing College Grove drive to the Granada Cafe after having parked his car at the curb. An automobile tore down upon them. Mrs. Hyde was knocked down, suffering a broken arm, scalp wounds and possibly a spinal injury. Benedict's body was carried a considerable distance before it dropped from the front bumper and was run over. Physicians believed he might have escaped death if the motorist had made an effort to stop the car.

Accompanying Mrs. Benedict to the morgue where identification was made was her brother-in-law, Edward N. Hurley, Jr., son of the former chairman of the U. S. Shipping Board.

Benedict's marriage to Miss Cecile Murphy, daughter of the world famous surgeon, was a social event. Both were prominent in South Shore society.

Liquor Carried From Canada by Airplane

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 17 (AP)—United States customs inspectors who arrested five men who had been unloading liquor from an airplane near Detroit, said today that the machine had been operating a week or 10 days out of La Salle, one of Essex county's down river liquor export centers.

The pilot escaped in his airplane as he noted the approach of the federal men who captured an automobile and 10 cases of whiskey which they said had been removed from the air smuggler's plane.

Premier and Ishbel View Niagara Falls

Both the Premier and Ishbel were impressed by the majestic beauty of the falls, which lie partly in the United States and partly in the Dominion, a sort of natural tie binding the people of the two flags. The MacDonald party ventured far below the waterfall into the roaring Niagara gorge, which greatly thrilled Ishbel. (International Newsreel photo.)

LAY SLAYING TO 'EVIL EYE'

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 17 (AP)—Two contradictory character pictures of Mrs. Pearl Burgess were drawn today as her trial on a charge of slaying Mrs. Ella L. Fairchild, 76, neared its end.

A belief that Mrs. Fairchild had cast an "evil eye" upon the Burgess family has been attributed to the defendant.

Mrs. Burgess was described as a "good mother, who broke under the strain of a troubled household."

By the State she was characterized as a "grudge slayer," who "calmly plotted a sinister slaying and just as calmly sought to evade punishment."

Counsel for Mrs. Burgess declared her confession was an "attempt of a wife of 20 years to shield her husband from the crime she knew he had committed."

Raid Bares Rum Hijacked From U. S.

Springfield, Oct. 17 (AP)—Seizure of liquors valued at $10,000 in a house here was directly connected today with the hijacking of a large quantity of liquor from a government warehouse in Providence, R. I., the night of September 17.

Silvano Pasqualini, 39, of this city, was arraigned in court charged with illegal possession and receiving the stolen liquor. He was held for a hearing October 31.

Hunt Lamplighter for Edison Celebration

Detroit, Oct. 17 (AP)—A lamplighter who half a century or more ago went about the streets of Detroit with a torch leaving a feeble light at each corner, is being sought by the committee arranging for the celebration here next Monday of Thomas A. Edison's invention of the incandescent lamp.

If one can be found he is to be given a conspicuous part in the ceremonies that will be featured by the presence of President Hoover and Mr. Edison's recreation of the original lamp.

The actual reconstruction of the first lamp will be done in the laboratory, now in Henry Ford's historical village at Dearborn, in which Edison conducted his original experiments at Menlo Park, N. J.

$40,000,000 FOR DRY LAW

Washington, Oct. 17—Prohibition enforcement will cost Uncle Sam approximately $40,000,000 next year, according to 1931 budget figures virtually approved today.

While the coast guard appropriation has not been determined, the total for enforcement is to be allocated to the various agencies will not be much different than last year, although some increases were sought. The budget bureau made cuts wherever possible, since President Hoover urged that the total appropriations be kept down as low as possible.

The prohibition bureau proper has been allowed about $15,000,000 and the customs bureau $12,000,000. The coast guard will get $28,000,000 to $30,000,000, about half of which goes toward anti-smuggling operations against rum runners. About $1,500,000 of the customs service appropriation will be devoted to prohibition work.

An additional $10,000,000 will be used by the various branches of the Department of Justice.

Though the budget carries $28,000,000 for the coast guard, additional funds may be authorized for cutters. A program for building 10 cutters, principally to replace those becoming obsolete, is about completed. Five have been put in service, three are under construction and bids will be taken on the ninth within a short time.

OPPOSITION TO ST. JEAN TICKET IS DEFEATED

Efforts to Compromise to Get Support for Lajoie and Erard Fail

Washington, Oct. 17 (INS)—Despite the sentimental contention of Lajoie and his many friends who accompanied them to this city to participate in last night's afternoon and witnessing the public installation of their newly elected leader.

Following the election of general officers balloting for directors began with 23 candidates for 14 places on the general board. The balloting followed abortive night of informal efforts which the leaders of the opposition made in support of the administration forces for the candidacies of J. Edward Lajoie of Fall River Mass. for supreme chief ranger and Emile Erard of Springfield Mass. for secretary. In return the opposition undertook to facilitate expedition to all the other candidates.

The candidacy of George N. Gifford of Providence, R. I. for treasurer was withdrawn by the opposition.

The following officers were re-elected:

Supreme president, Henry J. Ledoux of Nashua, N. H.; first vice-president, Arthur Davisu of Waterville Me., second vice-president, Dr. J. C. Z. Potvin of Springfield, Mass.; third vice-president, Evariste Aubin of Kankakee, Ill.; fourth vice-president, Alma Forcier of Goodyear, Ct.; secretary, Elie Vezina of Woonsocket, R. I.; treasurer, J. Arthur Favreau of Boston; auditor, J. George Lefarve of Syracuse, N. Y.

SEVEN PERISH IN HOTEL FIRE

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 17 (AP)—Trapper by flames, seven persons lost their lives and 12 others were burned or otherwise injured in a fire that swept through the Fort Smith Hotel here today.

Firemen believed that all bodies had been recovered from the smouldering ruins. Several of the injured were in a critical condition and some were not expected to live.

The cause of the blaze was undetermined. Firemen said the seven who died probably had suffocated while they slept. None could be identified at once. The building was a three brick structure.

John Fitzhenry, who turned in the alarm said he saw the fire through a window of the hotel. He added that it looked like it was burning on a stairway.

The hotel was operated by U. Okada, a Japanese, whose wife was critically injured when she leaped from a third-story window. The dead were all white persons.

MORE ARRESTS IN PANTAGES CASE NEAR

Los Angeles, Oct. 17 (AP)—The nation-wide search for the person or persons responsible for the mysterious attempt to murder Alexander Pantages, theatrical magnate, in his office here last July 5, entered a new phase today with the disclosure that police are investigating the activities of several men in connection with the case.

Fifty automobiles, carrying a number of startling tires, were captured by police in a series of raids and fifty persons were arrested in Pantages case, it was reported. Police, who refused to identify the men they had in custody, declared they had found in the tires evidence of dynamite or explosives.

Police Chief James E. Davis said that before the end of the week he expected to have a complete report on the case ready for the district attorney's office. Thomas L. Woolwine, assistant district attorney in charge of the prosecution of the case, declared that he would not be ready to present evidence to the grand jury for at least two weeks.

During arguments over the testimony Pete Schenck, who never saw eye to eye with Pantages, and who was shot by the latter's attempted assassin, declared that Pantages had told him that Police Chief Davis was in collusion with the defense attorneys in a deliberate attempt to discredit witnesses for the state in the court trial, and that Davis should not be trusted in the matter of personal investigations of the case.

SCHOOL BOARD APOLOGY URGED FOR McANDREW

Chicago, Oct. 17 (AP)—A school board apology to William McAndrew, the school superintendent found guilty of contempt of court, was urged today by Mayor William Hale Thompson.

Suit only did Mayor Thompson follow board members in demanding McAndrew's resignation. Some of the members of the board have made public appeals for the superintendent to make an apology to the city of Chicago for acting in haste in contributing the so-called Mundelein trial.

Mundelein said the trial was a result of a conspiracy against him, one of the principal members of which was Superintendent McAndrew. Mundelein's charges of this conspiracy were made public upon the eve of the trial.

Mayor Thompson, who is expected to make a statement on the matter tomorrow, declared today that he would not call a special meeting of the board to demand McAndrew's resignation, but that he would call a meeting of the board tomorrow night, at which time he would ask for an apology to the board from McAndrew.

To keep pace with this ever-growing demand, the famous "17 Million Jars Used Yearly," was raised to "21 Million" a short time ago. This figure too has been outgrown, as there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly"—a jar for every family in the U.S.

AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Never again need scientific research grope in darkened cellars behind doors bolted against torture. AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE has swept before it the ignorant barrier which stupidly impeded men of genius and science marches proudly on.

"toasting did it"—

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

"It's toasted"

INFORMATIVE MINOR BID

Salient Points of Bidding

Auction: South's four-card Diamond holding, supported by a side Ace, fully warrants an informative bid of one Diamond in his position as Dealer.

West passing, North makes the innocuous take-out of one Heart, a bid that he should make even though well able to support his partner's Minor suit call, as for example, if South had bid a Club instead of a Diamond. Hart's defensive control of one Spade and no value in offense with a passing partner, but ought be of defensive value as a lead-directing bid in case Both becomes the Declarer.

South, with good support for Hearts, has no occasion to jump his assist and therefore bids but two Hearts, concluding the bidding.

Contract: The Contract bidding is the same as the above except that South, following East's Spade overcall of North's Heart bid, has every reason, holding the necessary values, to jump his assist to the game contract.

The Play

East opens the King of Spades and Dummy's hand is exposed. North (Declarer), before playing from Dummy, takes stock of the situation presented. Should he win with Dummy's Ace and take the Heart finesse at once, he would obviously lose, should the finesse be unsuccessful, a Heart trick, two Spade tricks and the Ace of Clubs and thus would fail to go game.

Therefore, to reduce these possible losers, North, after winning with Dummy's Ace of Spades, plays his Ace of Diamonds followed by the Queen, discarding on the Queen a losing Spade.

Thereafter his only losers are a Heart trick, a Club trick and a Spade trick, and therefore he scores game.

An alternative play, which the Skeleton King of Diamonds might suggest to the Declarer, would be to lead a trump at once from Dummy and, declining the finesse, play the Ace of Hearts, in the hope of finding the King alone, just as the King of Diamonds was alone, experience showing that when there is a singleton in one of the four hands there is apt to be a singleton in another.

Should the King not fall, then the Declarer could take his Spade discard, and the game would result as in the actual play of the hand.

WAR BAN SEEN BY BREWSTER

Kennebunk, Me., Oct. 17—Boston will need and welcome all the assistance Maine and other New England states can give in entertaining the expected 20,000 visiting Legion delegates to the 11th convention, forme governor Ralph O. Brewster told Kennebunk Legion post.

The former Maine governor was a delegate to the recent national convention at Louisville. He predicted that the 1930 convention to Boston will mean the greatest growth of the organization in this section.

The address in part was as follows:

"World peace as one of the purposes of the American Legion, as recited in the preamble to its constitution, was very definitely in the mind of the convention this last month. There was evidence that the first time a standing committee upon foreign relations and world peace and the endorsement of the resolutions favoring the new era of understanding that now seems dawning upon the world.

"Universal peace is the result of another condition that is the major objective of the Legislature during the coming year, as determined at Louisville in the meeting of the National Committee, Chairman Edward I. Anthoine of Maine.

"The Legion will read its strong and long-standing support of international agreements limiting armaments and influence general security as one of the surest methods that could be thrown upon against the spread of war.

"The proposal is intended to take the profit out of war and making, could be made effective to discourage the likelihood of a resort to arms."

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authority as one of the greatest healing agents for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and other forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

URGES BETTER GAS COMPANY PUBLICITY

A well-planned, well-carried out campaign advertising campaign was made the New England public concerning the gas industry, was advocated at the New England Gas Association, and delegates to the American Gas Association convention at Atlantic City.

"A good advertising must be prepared, and it must be carried out consistently," said Mr. Williams. "It is the best means of influencing public opinion in favor of the gas industry. Examples of efficiency and economy on the part of the gas companies must be given to the public. Gas must be presented to the public in its true light. Gas companies must be ready and willing to give to the public the facts concerning their business and its related industries. Gas companies must be ready to cooperate with appliances and devices to save money and satisfy the public. Gas must be put into appliance advertising.

"I do not see why a gas industry should not be painted red and then tailored to fit the public demand for reasonable rates. The New England association is spending $1,000,000 to spend $1,000,000 to spend $1,000,000 in 1930. Before going to the association's doubled publicity program, he said, it is necessary that the trend of growth thinking is more effectively influenced from a public relations point of view. A publicity bureau in the local gas company generously backed by musical entertainment when it is practicable and properly backgrounded by newspaper publicity."

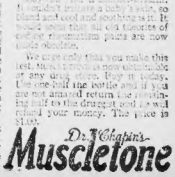
RHEUMATISM PAIN NEEDLESS
Relief in 7 to 10 minutes



Do you honestly want complete and lasting relief from the pain of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica or neuritis? Science has proven that it often ties needless. A new way has been found to end muscular agony and distress so surprisingly quick that it seems almost miraculous. Pain actually stops in 7 to 10 minutes and may be forgotten. Chronic cases and those unusually severe will of course require continued treatment for a while. This would be only natural. Yet often less than a single bottle is enough for complete relief even in most severe conditions of long standing.

This new discovery is known as MUSCLETONE. It was found by Dr. Chapin, a famous physician of New York. Now almost a million people have used the MUSCLETONE treatment. Easy learned of it entirely by word of mouth recommendation.

The amazing success of MUSCLETONE is due to the fact that it supplies needed medication to counteract infection. It neutralizes poisons and corrects faulty blood conditions. Full pain relief is the result. It does not take medicine.

Science tells us pain is a warning. Although pain is a useful warning, it is also a needless torture. Yet it is not necessary. Relief is instantaneous when MUSCLETONE is applied and cool and soothing as it is. It seems almost miraculous. Pain actually stops in 7 to 10 minutes and may be forgotten. Chronic cases and those unusually severe will of course require continued treatment for a while. This would be only natural. Yet often less than a single bottle is enough for complete relief even in most severe conditions of long standing.

We urge only that you make this test, so as to prove to your own satisfaction, at our risk, that MUSCLETONE is all we claim for it. Use one half the bottle and if you are not amazed return the remainder and get the entire purchase price refunded without question. Your word is sufficient. Don't suffer needlessly. Don't spend another penny for any drug or medicine. Buy it today

TRAINING OF CHILD HELD ESSENTIAL

The new and significant concern for the mental welfare of the young pre-school child, was dwelt upon by Dr. Arnold Gesell, director of the Yale psycho-clinic at the opening lecture in "The Behavior of Youth" series in Ford Hall. His address, "Nature and Nurture in the Early Years," was part of the course sponsored by the Massachusetts Civic League and the Judge Baker Foundation.

"A generation ago public education was conceived chiefly in terms of children old enough to read and to write," he said. "It was thought that education naturally began with school entrance and ended with graduation. But there are now two well defined educational movements which lie outside of the traditional boundaries of the school; the movement for adult education and the movement for pre-school education.

"Infants have individuality. Although they are plastic and impressionable, they grow in accordance with endowment as well as environment. Nature and nurture cooperate in close relationship. It is artificial to separate the two completely. But we do the young child a certain injustice if we do not recognize the inborn traits and trends of behavior which make him an individual.

"Infants as individuals differ as much as adults. Child management should not consist in making over the child in terms of a preconceived pattern, but in studying the natural patterns of his own growth in a sympathetic and constructive way.

"Growth is the key word in the psychology of child training. The infant comes into the world with certain potentialities of growth. These are not absolutely determined either by inheritance or by experience, but by both.

"The child's social attitudes, his preferences, prejudices, his self-reliance, and even some of the outlines of his philosophy of life are shaped in the pre-school years. It is for this reason that pre-school and parental education have so much importance for the stability and the happiness of the rising generation."

Dr. William Healy, director of the Judge Baker Foundation, presided at the meeting. At the next, to be held October 23, Herbert C. Parsons will preside and Dr. E. A. Kirkpatrick will lecture on "Teasing—Individual and Social Problems." He will discuss why teasing is universal, what its effects are and what problems of personality it produces.

Silhouette Has Definitely Resolved Itself Into Lines That Are Straight, Narrow and Close-Fitting

(SKETCHED IN PARIS)

(SKETCHED IN PARIS)

New Modes Demand Slight Curves Rather Than Angles

Paris Bureau of the Boston Evening American

PARIS, France, Oct. 17—Follow the straight and narrow road—if you would emerge sartorially perfect. For the silhouette has now definitely resolved itself into lines that are straight, narrow and close-fitting, the flare is not nearly so pronounced as it was at the beginning of the season, and in some of the newest models is conspicuous by its absence.

But the princess line retains its snug hold on us, especially for evening wear, much to the delight of the woman who is slender without being thin. Starvation diets are not a necessary prelude to the new modes, which demand slight curves rather than angles.

The newest vargaries of the silhouette are closely followed in both of the models depicted here today. The first shows the accepted silhouette for the very latest afternoon dresses. This model is in heavy crepe georgette in a lovely petunia shade, an ideal color to enliven dark winter days.

The close-fitting, almost princess lines of the dress are partially concealed beneath diagonal flounces laid in knife pleats. Similar flounces are amusingly posed at the elbows. There is a soft draping of the fabric at the natural waistline, otherwise the frock fits very snugly. This model is from the house of Cyber.

LES AMBASSADEURS is one of the smartest resorts here, and one is always certain of encountering women who are not only the last word in chic and perfection of grooming, but who also are generally accepted as arbiters of fashion. And so, we are glad of the opportunity that permitted time to sketch an evening frock that attracted considerable attention, even at this Mecca of Fashion.

THE dress is of crow blue faille—both color and fabric are extremely important just now—with a moire weave. It is very crisp and bouffant, and the draped lines of the slight flounce that soon becomes a drapery cascading to the floor, while the fabric is drawn snugly about the figure on the body of the frock.

C. D. A. Hold Whist

FRAID OF THAW, BUT ASKED HIM TO HER PARTY

New York, Oct. 17 (INS)—Marcia Straus, 19-year-old Broadway stage flapper, began another ordeal today on the witness stand today in her $100,000 suit against Harry K. Thaw for an alleged beating and biting suffered on New Year's Day of 1927.

In cross-examination defense counsel Isidore Shapiro, hammered away at the plaintiff's Broadway standard to learn and remember why she had invited Thaw to one of her benefit dances several days after the alleged assault on her.

Marcia had testified she didn't want Thaw to attend he dance because she was afraid of he consequences. Today Shapiro made her admit she herself told Thaw he could attend.

Earlier in the trial it was brought out Thaw telephoned her following the attack and offered to make amends.

WAS AFRAID OF THAW

The bulk of the cross-examination this morning hinged on these phone calls.

Q—Were you afraid when Thaw came to the dance? A.—Yes, naturally.

Q—But you told him to attend? A.—I didn't want publicity, and I was willing to do anything I said. Jess, but in my heart I didn't want him to come. And Mr. Pennington said Thaw wanted to make amends.

WHY SHE GAVE PARTIES

Q—That's why you brought this suit, isn't it? A.—(Half sobbing) Only after I was ruined by a newspaper story which the newspapers of it bought for $100 from one of Thaw's men.

When asked who benefited from the benefit dances, the pretty witness replied, amid sobs: "I ran parties to keep my home together."

Miss Estradus, according to her previous testimony, is the sole support of her mother and a crippled father.

The defense lawyer chided the witness because of what he claimed were discrepancies in her testimony. She denied her story contained discrepancies and said she rehearsed her testimony in the evenings.

This led Shapiro to exclaim:

"Then I have left out some of your lines today."

25,000 Teamsters Vote Not to Strike

New York, Oct. 17 (AP)—The 25,000 teamsters and truckmen who had threatened a sympathy strike with the walkout of 3000 oil truck drivers today were committed to a hands-off policy on decision of the leaders that the oil truck drivers are fighting the big oil companies, not the public.

The joint councils of the 18 locals of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Chauffeurs and Helpers decided a general strike would have "too dire consequences on the public" as it would tie up their food supplies.

The proposal of a boycott of "non-union gasoline" is still pending.

Bishop Dunne Improves

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 17 (INS)—The Rt. Rev. Edmund M. Dunne, bishop of the Peoria diocese, was reported slightly improved here today in his fight against pneumonia.

NOSE "all stuffed up"?

Of course it's annoying. But more than that, it is dangerous! A stuffed head means millions of germs—to drop into the throat—go through air passages into lungs and chest. Germs may pull you down with the "flu," bronchitis, even pneumonia.

Now you can clear your cold a new, quick and efficient way. Quickly you can destroy cold germs—simply by breathing OZO MIST—a marvelous new vaporizing liquid.

Drop a few drops of OZO MIST on your handkerchief. Then breathe the vapor that arises. You inhale the pure, soothing, invigorating odor. Bullet Hole Snares Her

Iona Ord of New York, an actress, shown under guard of a detective in New Orleans, where she is held with San Epstein, an admirer, in connection with the murder of Jack Kraft, New York fencing master, on board the steamer Creole. CLUES IN SEA DEATHS ARE SOUGHT

New York, Oct. 17 (INS)—Police are anxious to learn what connection there was between John Blackburn's dive into the Caribbean sea and Mrs. Ruby Roegge's death by poison as the steamer Mongolia piled her way from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Roegge, 37, a wealthy widow of Los Angeles, boarded the Mongolia in the California city, while Blackburn, described as a minor racketeer and card sharp, joined the cruise at Balboa.

Several members of the ship's crew say they saw the couple together and on several occasions saw them clink glasses.

Friday Blackburn tossed his suitcase overboard and then leaped after it. His body sank immediately.

Hoover to Make Peace Plea on November 11

Washington, Oct. 17—President Hoover will deliver an Armistice Day address, in which he will make a strong appeal for world peace, it is indicated at the White House.

An invitation to make such a speech has been extended at the White House by Senator Reed (R.), of Pennsylvania, spokesman for the American Legion in the Senate, and Senator Robinson, Arkansas, Democratic floor leader.

The address probably will be delivered at Arlington National Cemetery.

URGES BETTER PARENTAL CO-OPERATION

Springfield, Oct. 17 (AP)—Closer and more effective co-operation between teachers and parents, with intelligent and imaginative leadership at that end, was urged by Mrs. George Whiting of Cambridge, president of the Massachusetts Parent-Teacher Association, Inc., at the convention here today.

Mrs. Whiting strongly stressed the importance of the major project of the Parent-Teacher movement in this state at present, the securing for school systems of strong financial support. She declared that this is the critical period for education in the state.

Parent-Teacher association membership has increased 8000 in two years, Mrs. Whiting said, and now stands above 20,000. Springfield is the banner city in the matter of increased organization, with six associations two years ago and 31 at present.

Clergy Want Alcorn for Dry Law Director

Thompsonville, Conn., Oct. 17 (AP)—A resolution urging President Hoover to appoint State's Attorney Hugh M. Alcorn an assistant United States attorney-general in charge of prohibition enforcement, was adopted by the Synod of New York of the United Presbyterian church of North America today.

FINGER NAILS NOW SUCCEED MONKEY GLANDS

Vienna, Oct. 17 (INS)—A new rejuvenation scheme, whereby fingernails are used to supply the much sought-after revival of youth, has just been announced here by Professor E. Ullman, Viennese scientist and physician.

Professor Ullman, who has just published the results of his extensive experiments, found that pieces of sterilized nails or claws, which he sewed into the body, had a powerful rejuvenating effect upon the entire organism.

Professor Ullman carried out his experiments on a great number of animals, and, in addition, according to his published claims, also benefited a number of human beings.

Prince Will Act for King Armistice Day

London, Oct. 17 (AP)—King George will be absent from the Armistice Day services November 11 of this year.

It was announced today that the Prince of Wales would represent the King. He will lay a wreath on the cenotaph for him.

A court official who recently saw His Majesty said he was looking very well and, in fact, had never looked better. The King is expected to remain at Sandringham.

If Baby has COLIC

A cry in the night may be the first warning that Baby has colic. No cause for alarm if Castoria is handy. This pure vegetable preparation brings quick comfort and can never do the slightest harm. Always keep a bottle in the home. It is the safe and sensible thing when children are ailing. Whether it's the stomach, or the little bowels: colic or constipation; or diarrhea. When tiny tongues are coated, or the breath is foul. Whenever there's need of gentle regulation. Children love the taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it suitable for the tiniest infant, and for frequent use. And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than some needlessly strong medicine meant only for adult use. Genuine Castoria always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Prescribed by doctors!

CHARGE MARINE WITH ROBBERY ON COMMON

King Has No Regular Habits, So He Has 'Beautiful' Health

Chicago, Oct. 17 (AP)—King Alfonso of Spain is in "beautiful health," his physician, Viscount Aguilar, said today, because "he has never been a man of regular habits."

"My sovereign has never been a slave to regular diet, regular sleep, regular exercises, or regular anything else. He is not so stupid," the physician said.

"The only worry he causes me arises from the fact that he is so busy he does not get enough sleep—in my opinion. Even kings should sleep eight hours, but he only gets about six and a half.

"He eats less than half the amount the average man does, and he drinks very lightly."

LUCKY LUCANIA LIVES UP TO HIS NAME

New York, Oct. 17 (AP)—Charles "Lucky" Lucania, 33 years old, Brooklyn racketeer, boll police today how he lived up to his name. He was known to police records as "Lucky" Lucania, but when arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, he told police he was "Lucky" because he had escaped death so often.

Lucania was found by a policeman early today slightly limping his way along a New York pier in Staten Island. Two .38 caliber revolvers, fully loaded, were found in his pockets.

He told police that a man had attempted to kill him with a knife last night, but he escaped him and took a boat for Staten Island in New Jersey. While there he said, he read he had been convicted and awoke to find that officials in the Staten Island jail had released him.

Police said Lucania was a member of the Diamond brothers gang, and a friend of Thomas (Buffalo) Welsh, former Brooklyn bodyguard who was killed in Miami last winter.

Lucania was questioned at the time of the Hoboy Tobey murders for which John "Legs" Diamond was indicted but convicted. The police he knew nothing of the killings. He said he did not know why he had been arrested.

ROCKEFELLER LAUDS BROWN PRESIDENT

Providence, Oct. 17—Five hundred leaders of Brown University pledged loyalty to Dr. Clarence Augustus Barbour as new president of the institution.

Alumni gathered from many parts of the country to attend the three day ceremonies and hear approval of Dr. Barbour expressed "old fashioned belief that Brown alone all they ought to be allowed what they have made of themselves."

At the same time he declared, "there is no need of contradiction between scholarship and athletics."

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., a trustee, in the alumni, lauded Dr. Barbour as a man of extraordinary sympathy, kindness, gentleness and self sacrificing almost to a fault.

"His greatest contribution to the university will be his own personality," said Mr. Rockefeller.

The meeting was the first event in the inaugural program. The inauguration will be held tomorrow morning, following an impressive academic procession down College street to the campus to the First Baptist Meeting House.

B. & M. CLEARED IN NO. STATION CONTRACT

Commerce Commission Holds the Clayton Anti-Trust Law Not Violated

The Boston & Maine railroad in awarding construction contracts for the new North Station and other terminal facilities, did not violate the Clayton anti-trust act, according to a ruling handed down in Washington today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The complaint was lodged with the commission against the railroad by Edmund C Colman, Boston realtor and stockholder of the road, who charged that Homer Loring had violated section 10 of the Clayton anti-trust act, which prohibits a common carrier from having contracts for construction and maintenance in excess of $50,000 with an organization in which any of its officers are interested.

Colman held that on June 5, 1928, the general contract under which the work of construction at the North Station is being carried on was let to the Dwight P Robinson & Co., Inc., without competitive bidding, and that on said date Homer Loring of Boston was a director and the chairman of the executive committee of the railroad, and at the same time a stockholder of record of said Dwight P Robinson & Co.

The commission found that Loring was interested in the construction company prior to June 5, 1928, but that he had disposed of his interest before the awarding of the contract.

STOMACH ILLS

A Medical Opinion

"The ideal corrective for 'sour stomach' is calcium carbonate—a potential anti-acid, incapable of disturbing the normal action of the bowels and bladder, impossible of overdosage and perfectly safe to use."

—Your own doctor will tell you, on this question free and medical authority.

A Powerful Anti-acid—yet Safe

Old-fashioned folks, not above trusting to local science, still take burning soda. Occasional doses may do no harm.

But Calcium Carbonate, in proper form, is the modern anti-acid: 2½ times as effective as soda, as it is safe in its action and positive in its relief.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the ideal form of Calcium Carbonate combined with other valuable healing ingredients. Medical authorities commend Stuart's formula as the only kind for use with children and best for men and women.

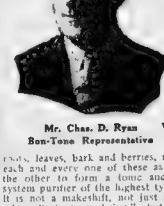
Bon-Tone an End to Chronic Ills

Roslindale Resident Amazed at the Speed Famous Medicine Worked

. . . a day passes that Mr. Ryan, the Bon-Tone expert at Epstein Drug Company, Scollay Square, Boston, doesn't hear words of praise of this wonderful tonic. Old and young alike testify as to its merits and marvelous power. And yet there is nothing mystifying about this medicine—it is just Mother Nature's own remedy, made from . . .



Mr. Chas. D. Ryan
Bon-Tone Representative

. . . roots, leaves, bark and berries, and each of every one of these assist the other to form a tonic and a system purifier of the highest type. It is not a makeshift, not just another "patent medicine," but a REAL medicine. We make no claims for Bon-Tone—it isn't necessary—we just let grateful users tell what it has done for them.

Mrs. William Sullivan of 3908 Washington Street, Roslindale, Mass., states: "For the past year I have not been feeling well. My food would not digest properly, causing gas to form and making me feel all bloated after eating. I was also severely troubled with my gall bladder, which caused very disagreeable dizzy spells. Constipation was another source of complaint, and when I saw Bon-Tone advertised so highly, I thought I would give it a trial.

"My present health is greatly improved. I was very much surprised after only taking two bottles of Bon-Tone to see how much better I felt. In fact, my general health has improved greatly; gas after eating has been eliminated; my gall bladder condition is normal again and constipation has been corrected. I am going to keep right on taking this great medicine, and I know before long I shall be in excellent health."

And every day the Bon-Tone man hears stories such as the one quoted above. Our files are filled to overflowing with testimonials of men and women who have been brought back to glorious health thru the use of the great medicine.

Those who want to get well and enjoy health and happiness, just go and see the Bon-Tone man, who is meeting the public at Epstein Drug Co., Inc., Scollay Square, only, Boston. Bon-Tone is also for sale in South Boston at John S. Austin's Drug Store, Parkins Square, and in the Cola Drug Co., 636 Massachusetts Ave., Central Square Cambridge.

No Harm in Pure Cascara

Whenever a coated tongue, bad breath, disordered stomach or general run down feeling tell you it is time to give a little help in their general cleanup work, take Cascarets tonight and you will be glad you did in the morning. Cascarets work while you sleep, gently but thoroughly, without griping, sickening or weakening, and help you feel like a new person by morning. Don't forget that a 10c box means a clear head, sweet breath, a good appetite, and the next day a bright, cheerful outlook on life. Cascarets are sold by druggists the world over. Millions of boxes are used every month by men and women who have found that they are the ideal way to overcome constipation, biliousness, indigestion, headaches, bad colds, and other troubles that upset the system and spoil good times.

Cascarets are sweetened with pure sugar and flavored with delicious aromatic oils that make them like candy to take. They are the right kind of a laxative for children as well as grown-ups. Cascarets are prescribed by doctors because they are a mild, thorough laxative that does not irritate or inflame the delicate tissues of the digestive tract. They relieve constipation, biliousness, headaches, bad colds, sour stomach, coated tongue, and other discomforts caused by constipation. They are especially good for children because they taste like candy and children love to take them.

That's why millions take Cascarets regularly. Next time you have that bilious, headachy, devil's feeling that comes from a disordered stomach or for any reason you suspect liver and bowels are not functioning just right—take a Candy Cascaret.

Just Naturally Good

Good tobaccos . . . made good by Nature, not by "artificial treatment." That's the secret of OLD GOLD'S goodness

A skilled chef may be able to make a doubtful steak taste good by artificial flavoring and sauces. But it's still dangerous to your stomach.

So it is with cigarette tobaccos. "Heat-treating" is useful to "set" and "sterilize" the tobaccos . . . and all cigarette makers have used it for years. But "heat-treating" cannot take the place of good tobacco in making a honey-smooth cigarette. OLD GOLD tobaccos are just naturally good. Carefully selected from Mother Nature's best . . . for their honey-like smoothness, flavor and freedom from throat-scratch.

You have only to try a package to get the thrill of this smoother and better cigarette. That will tell you why OLD GOLD'S sales are ALREADY THREE TIMES GREATER than the combined sales of three leading brands during a like period of their existence.

Better Tobaccos make them smoother and better . . . with "not a cough in a carload"

McKenney Takes 30 B. C. Players for Dayton Contest

ERMAN WILL BE READY FOR GAME

THE Eagles fly today. Thirty Boston College grid warriors will respond to the call "all aboard" and travel over the rails to Dayton, O., where they meet the University of Dayton on Saturday. The Eagles will arrive tomorrow shortly after noon. The home town folks will turn out strong to greet the Eagle footballers, whose reputation out to those regions is almost as great as Notre Dame's. The Eagle team rather will pick up its grid cargo at Newton-ville. Joe McKenney's boys will be dressed early from class and will have a workout at the Heights so they get into the buses for Newtonville depot.

Today's work will be a final polishing up so that the squad won't be too long an absence from the field and probably forget all about it. There'll be another light session tomorrow in Gerson's stadium shortly after arrival.

PLAYERS ON TRIP

The B. C. boys who are making the trip are: Capt. Paddy Creedon, Morley, George Colbert, Chesny Ives, John Marr, Joe Shea, Mike Sodoskys, Tom O'Brien, Al Ricci, Ralph Mallett and Jos Kelley, center.

Ends are Charley Murphy, John Dugan, Ed Gibbons, Henry Buckley and Joe McDonald. B. C.'s backfield aces are Pete Herman, Henry Glaisner, Jack Young, Bill Bennett and Ed Romanowski. The guards include Al Morelli, John Mahoney, Joe Laskin, Bud Gorman and Frank Dugan.

Four pivots will go. They are Steve Anderson, Harry Downes, Jos Cuneen and Penny Mason.

Coaches Joe McKenney, John Mannion and Bill Ormsby. Dr. Thomas Dinneen, Trainers Frank Jones, Jerry Sullivan; Rev. Fr. Roddy, athletic manager, Frank Reynolds, graduate manager, and Paul Feeney, student manager, complete the Eagle party.

McKenney announced these selections last night. With his squad cut down to 30, Joe had a hard time selecting the best, for there are over 50 aspirants wearing the maroon and Gold.

HERMAN TO PLAY

The brightest feature of the announcement is the fact that Large Pete Herman is included. Pete's recovery is somewhat astounding, for on Monday he wasn't expected to be back before the Canisius game a week from Saturday in Boston.

Coach McKenney was confident before departure that his team could maintain their unbeaten record under his regime by victimizing the Ohio foes in the intersectional tilt.

Dayton has won all its games so far, they have beaten Indiana Central Normal, 33-0; Wilmington, 7-0, and Detroit, 18-6.

It's a homecoming day at Dayton and the university team will probably outplay themselves before the old crowd and friends that will gather for the battle. Eleven thousand is expected on the Dayton football field, but this mark is due to be washed with the invasion of the Boston contingent. Fifteen thousand are expected to watch the Eastern champions of a year ago.

DAYTON TEAM HEAVY

Coach Harry Baujan lost his two veteran guards and a center, but the other positions are the only ones open on the team. His club is heavy and fast and uses the deceptive attack of Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame.

Boston College will be a favorite for the game in the West End Park, and even a few of B. C.'s pessimistic fans were here in the Hub are expecting Dayton to win, for they seem to have every pre-game advantage favoring them. It may be that B. C. will arrive home Sunday with their record of 14 games without a defeat ruined.

Money Voted for Harvard Gym

The Harvard Corporation has voted to permit the Athletic Association to use as much of its surplus fund as will be necessary to finish the Indoor Athletic Building, which is under construction at the present time, according to an announcement at the university.

William J. Bingham, director of athletics at Harvard, stated, following notice of the corporation's vote, that the athletic association would be required to use approximately $300,000 of its surplus, available leaving a balance, when all construction is completed.

The building probably will not be completed until May, but the swimming pools are expected to be ready in February.

MR. BOSTON

—by JACK CONWAY

MR. BOSTON was greeted by Charley (Pop Emanuel, father manager of Armand Emanuel, when he dropped in at Jim Toland's Gym.

"The boy and myself arrived in Boston after 10 days spent in the woods of Canada," said Pop. "Armand's right arm, which he injured while training for his prospect bout with Jim Maloney, is okay and the boy is ready to resume action in the ring.

"I'm going to have Armand start training here and plan to have him appear at the Garden in the near future. We shall aim for a shot at Maloney.

"The boy has put on a lot of weight and will make considerable trouble for members of the heavyweight division."

Jack Conway

STANLEY STASIAK was working out for his mat battle with Bibber McCoy, which comes off at the Grand Opera House tomorrow night. The "Lion of Poland" looked big enough to lick all the fighters who were doing their stuff at Toland's.

"The past year has been a big one for me on the mat," Stasiak told Mr. Boston. "I made more money last season than I did in any three other seasons I have been on the wrestling mat, believe this new interest in wrestling is largely due to the popularity of Gus Sonnenberg."

JAKE ZERAMBY, Lynn featherweight, stepped into the ring and breezed through a rapid-fire workout. Zeramby worked out under the direction of Al Lacy.

"Zeramby," chirped Mr. Boston, "looks fit and should pile up a flock of victories during the indoor season."

Sammy Fuller, colorful North End featherweight, whom the late Tom Goodin nicknamed the American Pancho Villa, watched Zeramby do his stuff.

"There's one bird I'm sure I can lick," Fuller confided to Phil Buccola, his manager.

"Here's a chance for Eddie Mack to land a natural for the Garden," remarked Mr. Boston when he heard Fuller's statement.

"Who is Moore boxing?" Mr. Boston asked Johnny Buckley.

"I have Frankie in with Jonny Drew at Worcester on Friday night," said Buckley. "Moore is in fine condition and is prepared to lose any of the featherweights for losses."

SOLLY SNYDER elbowed his way through the crowd until he got over to where Mr. Boston was standing.

"Don't forget that Arthur Flynn and Homer Robertson are down to battle in a ten-round bout at Lawrence," said Solly.

This show comes off tonight and should play to a big crowd at the Colonial Theater in Lawrence.

EDDIE DAVIS tipped Mr. Boston that Charley Parker, South End boxer, will be back in action early next month. Parker recently upset Pancho Villa at the Garden.

LARRY (Big Boy) Rawson bellowed Mr. Boston. The mighty puncher is likely to appear at the Arena a week from Monday night.

"IT looks as though the boxers are anxious to make some money so that they can do their Christmas shopping early," Mr. Boston said to Jim Toland as he started for the mail.

"There's always action here," replied Toland, "though at times I do wonder where all the boys who are working out find clubs to feature them. I always remember Jack Sharkey's debut as a started at Toland's. This thought probably gives some of the youngsters courage when things are not breaking any too well for them."

Fittons to Play Whitman Sunday

At Fort Banks, Winthrop, the united Fraternal Fittons club will face another unbeaten team in the Whitman A. A. on Sunday.

The Fittons hope to roll up a big score on Whitman. With Maddy Sayles going at his best at fullback, the East Boston eleven is enjoying the best season of its history.

WEST POINT ARRIVES TONIGHT

By BILL GRIMES

EARLY this evening, two-score of West Point football warriors will detrain at Newtonville for the Belmont Spring Country Club where they will make their headquarters during the second annual visit here for the Harvard game.

With Major Philip B. Fleming, director of athletics, commanding, the West Point squad left Garrison N. Y. this morning on a special train, which was routed via Albany. The varsity players reported at the gym on a time promptly at 10 o'clock, and, after signing the book of departure, started out through the grey walled building and down the hill to the wharf, where they boarded a tug for Garrison.

Bill Grimes

As usual the Army squad was taciturn. But as this is a chronic condition among West Point teams on the eve of big contests it was valueless as far as conveying any information regarding the outcome of tomorrow's game was concerned.

A year ago, West Point was represented by one of its greatest elevens, and they gave every indication of fearing the Harvard game.

Head Coach Biff Jones saw Harvard in action against New Hampshire, and although he absolutely refused to make any pre-game statement, it is believed that he fears the outcome.

ARMY HAS 8 VETS

Against Harvard, the Army will have six veterans, or last year's game in its starting line-up, but, the five absentees are a decided loss to the Cadets. Any team which has a center trio of such stars as Bill Hall, John Dibb and Louie Hammack, not to mention the great All-American tackle, Capt. Sprague and field general Spike Nave, cannot be up to standard the following year.

Time, the Army has its Chris Cagle, John Murrell, Dick O'Keefe, Ted Carlson, Ed Messmer and Custer Piercy. Judging from reports of West Point games, this talk, Capt. Chris Cagle and Ed Messmer, both of whom won their letters last season.

Neither Cagle or Messmer have been used to any great extent this season, for fear of injury before the big game. It was Messmer who scored against Harvard last fall after completing a pretty pass from Chris Cagle.

LINE CAUSES WORRY

It is the line which is giving Coach Jones cause for worry. From tackle to tackle he has one veteran, Buster Perry. The battle for the snapper back berth has been going on all season between Miller, Lazar and Bunker. The former had the call up to last week when Lazar began to come and there is still a doubt in the mind of Coach Jones as to whom he will start.

Bunker played with the plebe team last fall and is the son of a former great West Point halfback, who played with the old 30th C. A. C. at Fort Warren and also for the Dorchester A. A.

"Polly" Humber and another third lieutenant, Hillsinger, are the first-string guards. Humber played a year at Georgia Military College and three seasons with Navy's second team. Hillsinger is entering West Point Humber won his football "A" in 1925, but was "washed out" for scholastic deficiency the following spring, but returned two years ago and won a nib to Louie Hammack last season.

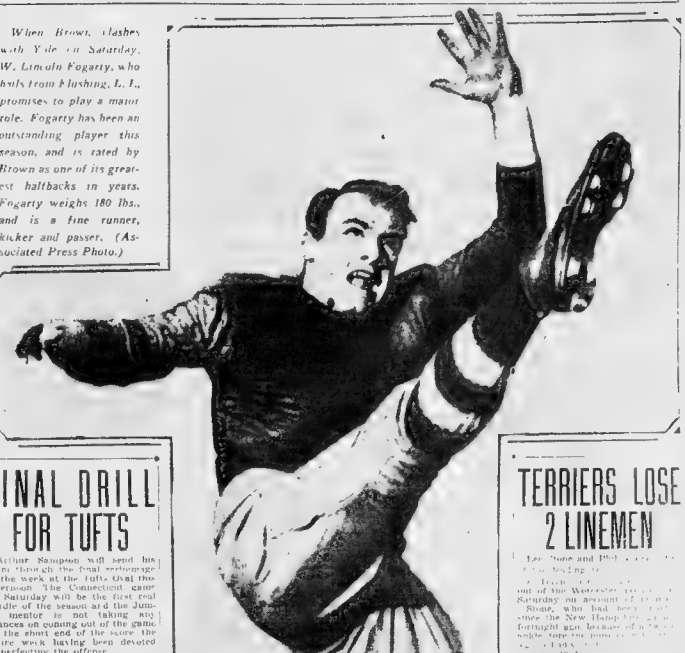
Hillsinger was the outstanding plebe lineman last fall and has been giving a fine account of himself since he joined the varsity.

CONTEST FOR QUARTERBACK

Price and Fulton are fighting it out for ex-Capt. Sprague's position at left tackle, the former having a slight edge on Fulton. Also there is a stern contest on for quarterback between Bowman and Gibner and, in all probability they will divide the assignment.

BROWN'S TRIPLE THREAT AGAINST YALE

When Brown clashes with Yale on Saturday, W. Lincoln Fogarty, who hails from Flushing, L. I., promises to play a major role. Fogarty has been an outstanding player this season, and is rated by Brown as one of its greatest halfbacks in years. Fogarty weighs 180 lbs., and is a fine runner, kicker and passer. (Associated Press Photo.)



FINAL DRILL FOR TUFTS

Arthur Sampson will send his team through the final workout of the week at the Tufts Oval this afternoon. The Connecticut game on Saturday will be the first real hurdle of the season and the Jumbo mentor is not taking any chances on coming out of the game on the short end of the score. The entire week having been devoted to perfecting the offense.

George LeCain and Kelly have been the only backs to show to advantage against the heavy junior varsity line. LeCain being effective on the wide end sweeps while Kelly has proven himself the hardest line bucker of this Sampson has.

Kelly has been on the bench all season with a foot injury, getting into the workouts for the first time this week. He has shown such consistency that he may land a starting berth in the Connecticut game.

In the event that Jack Gibbons is still on the casualty list Kelly will hold the fullback position.

The lineup that will probably start the Connecticut game will be the same that started the Bates game in all probability with the possible exception of Gibbons.

Earl Littleton at right tackle is proving one of the season's finds. His work being outstanding in the games to date while Tobey Rachaloff and Allman are more than holding up against the opposition.

Several of the big second string linemen are pressing on the regulars for a starting berth but have been unable as yet to get the call.

Sampson is after the speed when the lighter men can give to the defense. The value of a flashy and varied attack was well shown last Saturday when Tufts was able to go through the Bates game under wraps while scoring a shutout, making but two first downs against eleven for the Maine team.

K. O. Christner and Ernie Schaaf End Training for Bout

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

RIVALS WILL BOTH TRY FOR K. O.

K. O. CHRISTNER and Ernie Schaaf, today ended training for their 10-round quarrel, at the Boston Garden tomorrow night.

The rival heavyweights each declare they are in the well known pink and prepared to splatter the opposing around the canvas of the Garden ring.

The meeting of these free punching warriors has got the fans steamed up. It is expected there will be a big crowd on hand when Schaaf and Christner start to let their punches fly.

Christner's terrific right hand wallop is still regarded as the one punch which will turn the tide of battle in this bout, and while the Akron tire puddler has been installed a 10-to-8 favorite to win, there is plenty of Schaaf money around. For Schaaf today is regarded as one of the most dangerous heavyweights in the ring, in spite of the fact that he has only recently turned 21 years old.

With both principals predicting a knockout finish for this bout, Hub fans anticipate one of the fiercest heavyweight events ever decided in the Hub. Each man is planning a toe to toe campaign in this contest and for this reason fistic seamen predict a K. O. victory is a most certain.

SCHAAF'S BACKERS SURE.

Ernie Schaaf's backers are gobbling up all the money in sight that Christner does not win by the knockout route. They point out the fact that Schaaf has never been knocked down in the ring and for this reason they expect him to hide any of Christner's mighty thumps.

Mike McTigue former heavyweight champion of the world comes to the Hub hospital of combining his knockout streak against Jack Gagnon of Allston, when he meets in the 10-round semifinal. McTigue, who was born in County Clare and one of the few real Irishmen in the ring today, has set up a record of five straight knockouts in recent bouts. For this reason it is expected that "Old Man River," as he is known in the boxing game will enter the ring a favorite.

Joe Bonnico of Boxal night is N. Y. one of the newest heavyweights, who defeated Leo Burns in the Lexington Shatuck card, a clash with Tom Tonor of Philadelphia in one of the sixes. Tonor has won two bouts in the Hub in previous starts. Johnny Urban of New York, Gene Tunney's former sparring partner, will clash with Pete Perrotti, who accompanied K. O. Christner to the Hub.

JACK MOULTON ON CARD

Abe Callahan Lapsweh, former University of Penn fullback, one of the greatest gridiron stars of a couple of years ago, makes his Hub bow here against Marvin Stor, the Yo-Yo top of the ring. Danny Regan and Mike Raffaeli also clash in a six rounder in a four-round bout, Jack Moulton and Jerry Berndt, who recently at the Arena, clash in a return bout.

Ernie Schaaf, above, who meets K. O. Christner at the Boston Garden, Friday night, is ready for his big chance. Schaaf is seeking bouts with Maloney and Sharkey, but he will have to dispose of Christner first.

SCHAAF READY FOR BIG SHOT

5 MAJOR GRID BATTLES ON SATURDAY

Chicago Oct 17—When who in Midwestern football should stand out like a quarantine sign when the grist from the gridiron sausage mill is rolled out in these parts on Saturday.

Five major conflicts each a classic in itself are in tap in this section. All are the subject of highly interesting speculation.

Here is the card that gives even the most disheartened Cub fan something to look forward to:

Wisconsin-Notre Dame at Chicago.

Iowa-Illinois, at Iowa City.

Northwestern-Minnesota, at Evanston.

Michigan-Ohio State, at Ann Arbor.

Indiana-Colgate, at Bloomington.

Three of the headliners are strictly inter-conference affairs aimed to unseat Illinois as Big Ten champion. The latter will receive its first crucial test of the season when it goes up against the tough Hawke[illegible] at Iowa City.

Many believe Coach Zuppke has a stronger team than that which he marshalled to a title last year but so far the Illini are unproven against big time competition. To date they have beaten Kansas 27 to 0, and Bradley of Peoria, 45 to 0. In both of these contests they looked like ball-hogs.

ZUPPKE IS FAVORITE.

Iowa opened its Conference season last Saturday by losing to Ohio State by the narrow margin of one point, 7 to 6. [illegible] Hawks are expected to be an improved team, it is doubtful if they will be able to match the dynamic power of Zuppke's machine.

Northwestern, in its touch assignment against the Minnesota bone crushers, will be severely handicapped by the absence of Hank Bruder, star back, who suffered a broken leg in last week's Conference opener with Wisconsin.

The Purple won that particular tilt, 7 to 6, but at a terrific cost. Coach Hanley was breathing about for a toe artist and runner to fill Hanks post but so far he has been unsuccessful. In their 13 to 6 victory over Vanderbilt, Saturday, the Gophers gave ample warning that they are to be reckoned with.

The Michigan-Ohio State game at Ann Arbor is one of those "call it and take it" affairs. Ordinarily the Wolverines would be the odds favorites, but after being pushed all over the lot by Purdue last Saturday, 20 to 16 in a manner unbecoming—they have lost some of their "it." Coach Kipke is said to have used a lot of harsh words when he got his squad together after the game. The harsh words continued as late as yesterday when he told them, individually and collectively that if they didn't snap out of it they would find themselves subbing for a bunch of second string men.

'Sharkey Greatest Puncher'—Dempsey

By JACK DEMPSEY

JACK SHARKEY'S spectacular victory over Tommy Loughran [illegible] WANTS to know just about as [illegible] But Sharkey has to be in the [illegible] Sharkey. But Sharkey—unlike most folks who are all feverish in their desire to knock a fellow for a row of button-ups—was cool, calm, deliberate—a tiger let loose in the ring!

Jack Dempsey

All of the speed and the cleverness of Loughran were of little use. In that first round he did keep out of trouble simply because Sharkey, trying to finish the fight with a few cyclone smashes, had failed to get the range. But in the second round Jack crowded in [illegible] before he let the [illegible] Loughran both and clip without much trouble, and it was obvious to even the most ardent Loughran fans that Sharkey was on his way to a smashing victory.

LOUGHRAN was rated as the cleverest man in the game. His speedy defense was supposed to keep Sharkey at a distance. But [illegible] about low cleverness to [illegible] things being equal [illegible] afoot, and brains, [illegible] that a tushie. [illegible] beat the clever old master.

Sharkey proved himself, if he never has done it before, in that Loughran fight. He demonstrated swiftness of foot, cleverness when he needed to call on it, the fighting heart, a willingness to sling it out and, above all else, the Boston sailor showed that he has punching power like nobody else in the racket today.

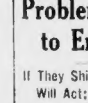
Unemployment Problem Is Up to Employers

If They Shirk, Politicians Will Act; Remedy Is Here Suggested

By B. C. Forbes

NEW YORK, Oct. 17—"I have read your column concerning labor in the South and also the column about the man who committed suicide because he was too old to be able to find work. You might find something in the way of a solution of the problems mentioned in statements I have just made to the American Association of Trade Executives, which takes in about 400 of our leading business organizations."



B. C. Forbes

Thus writes Benjamin A. Javits, lawyer whose volume "Make Everybody Rich" has attracted widespread attention among employers.

Briefly what this authority presents as the necessary step towards the solution of periodic unemployment, the problem of the older employee and other economic problems is the formation of an association of Industrial Chiefs, in the nature of health associations of every industry in the land.

* * *

This association of employers would have the object of taking steps to become acquainted with every man employed in their industry. Unless one is personally acquainted with a man he is unconsciously become a problem.

Such employers have no difficulty in discharging workers to the right or even by the thousand when economic failure sets in. They never appear to feel entitled to step out for the workers of the thousands of workers whom they will not be able to keep permanently.

Very often to such workers in Europe in the seasons they need them is apparently regarded as no concern of the employers.

But what happens to workers in the concern of society. If it is not made the concern of industry, it will be made the concern of politicians. We certainly cannot employed workmen to commit suicide or resignedly to starve to death. Provision must be made for them in the country just as other countries have found it obligatory to meet the same problem.

* * *

"Every business is affected in every way by the unemployed. Every employed in every business that is not functioning 100 per cent. that is not operating at a profit. General Motors, or United States Steel, or the American Telephone & Telegraph, with their huge investments, must bend all of their energies to see that there is no idle, that the average man not only has a larger purchasing power, but that all are profitably employed.

"Can any single industry, or any group of industries, regardless of how large, accomplish this objective? Then assuredly it is not the nature of our industrial development, cooperative effort.

* * *

"How can we bring up our standard of life to an ever higher plane unless each can contribute toward the making of a useful existence? Ford or Rockefeller or Morgan could not individually afford to have a private telephone system or a network of radios, of railroads, such as all of the people enjoy.

"The time has come for American industry, the American people and the American Government to take a responsible agency, organized by, of and for American industry, whose aim and purpose are to so co-ordinate American industry as to bring prosperity for all.

* * *

"One mattress manufacturer cannot accomplish industry's new goal—to make everybody rich—in the mattress industry. The mattress industry cannot accomplish it for the furniture industry. The furniture industry cannot accomplish it for the building industry. The building industry cannot accomplish it for the real estate business. The real estate business cannot accomplish it for all of business.

"But all the industries, all the workingmen, all the technicians, all the scientists, all the engineers, if you will, could together accomplish the goal—could, could, enslave the electric horsepower, the ton of steel and the genius of man's combined mind in order that man be liberated gradually but surely to that higher plane, to that higher life and to that greater horizon.

* * *

Surely it is the most elementary commonsense that the problem of unemployment should not be accepted as the problem of the unemployed only, but that it must be accepted as the problem, rather, of employers.

How long are they going to shirk this problem, this duty?

Delays may prove dangerous.

CURB MARKET PRICES SHOW MIXED TREND

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—The curb stock market was submitted to further irregular movements during the forenoon session, closing the day with prices mixed.

Utilities, industrials and specialties were all represented in the day's weekly brokerage loan figures, and these are taken as a guide to the market's trend.

Electric investments, after toppling off about 82 points on the high record for the year, rebounded 1 to 3 points. Electrical issues were also active against a moderate declining position, causing further speculation over the high points in this group of stocks. American and Foreign Power was in demand, Commonwealth Power, Corporation and Standard Power and Light were among issues showing renewed heaviness.

Industrials were largely heavy, although Standard Textile, which broke 45 points to 125 in a small turnover yesterday, rebounded 35 points to 160. Aluminum Co. lost 15 points, and such issues as Crocker Wheeler, Otis Elevator, Curtiss A & General Theatres Equipment and Glen Alden Coal eased a point or more.

Oils remained steady, to firm. Casing again penetrating further into new high ground, but there encountered considerable resistance. Standard of Indiana and Humble were firm, and Cities Service and Gulf fairly steady, although its advance appeared to have been halted for the time being.

Bank of England's Rate Is Unchanged

LONDON, Oct. 17 (AP)—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes in pounds: Total reserve increased 4,531,000; circulation increased 3,598,000; bullion increased $936,000; other securities decreased 1,126,000; public deposits increased 1,691,000; other deposits increased 2,672,000. Rate of discount 6½ per cent.

TOURIST GAIN IN N. BRUNSWICK

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 17—Tourist travel to New Brunswick in the 1929 season now nearing a close shows a greater increase than expected as a result of heavy traffic during September, it is revealed by statistics gathered by the New Brunswick government bureau of information and tourist travel.

Permits issued for entry of automobiles from the United States at Canadian Customs Houses at international boundary points in this Province for stays of periods from over 24 hours up to 60 days totalled 31,991 up to Sept. 30 for the present season, as compared with 27,294 for the corresponding period of last year.

These figures with those showing the large number of tourists cars which returned to the United States through New Brunswick after entering Canada at other ports of entry and the tremendously increased tourist traffic from other provinces of the Dominion, notably Ontario, make it evident that final figures for 1929 will show the increase in volume of motor tourists traffic to New Brunswick this year more than 25 per cent over 1928.

MISS MAJESTIC VOTING ENDS AT MIDNIGHT

Line touchdowns coming down the home-stretch for the finish line, the Miss Majestic contestants are surging through the last hours of the Popularity Contest in a speed that is almost bewildering.

The past 24 hours have seen more votes cast than have been deposited in any two of the previous. Theater coupons, sales coupons, donation coupons—coupons of every sort that can be found have been poured into the desired stores and into contest headquarters.

Today the activity will grow greater. The accountants in charge of the votes have prepared to make hourly collections of the ballots in order to speed up the final count. At least two days will be required to tabulate and check the total of the votes. Thousands and thousands will be cast today—the last day of the contest.

Midnight tonight is the deadline. Votes in the hands of the dealers or deposited at the contest headquarters, 224 Tremont st., by 12 midnight, or postmarked before midnight, tonight, will be counted. After midnight is too late.

E. H. McCarthy, contest director, says: "There are enough votes and valuable as any other if you want them. A vote cast now is just as good as one cast on the first day. If you are going to a MELODY Theater tonight get a contest ballot and cast it for your neighborhood favorite. If you are going to buy a photo, buy a Majestic today and give your coupons for the benefit of that huge vote total that goes with your act. She can use your prize of 15,000 votes. They may be the means of putting her in a winning position. Midnight tonight is final. Make that for you to get in plenty of good work. Go to it, and make the hours count."

Present indications point to such a mass of ballots that it is impossible to announce just how soon the winners will be made known. Monday will be the earliest possible date, and it is more likely that Tuesday will be the day. At any rate, the announcement will be made at the first possible moment and will be carried in the news columns of the Boston Evening American. Watch for it early next week.

Edison Lamps of '79 for Dinner Souvenirs

Replicas of the original Edison lamp will be distributed as souvenirs tonight in the Engineers' Club at a dinner of the Illuminating Engineering Society in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the invention of the incandescent light.

The dinner is sponsored by Associated Gas & Electric Light Co., Cambridge Bridge Co., and Charles H. Tenney Co., Boston. The speakers will be L. A. Hawkins of Washington, D. C., and Julius Daniels of Boston.

Ex-Soviet Attache Attempts Suicide

Warsaw, Oct. 17 (INS)—Paul Lambow, former attache at the Soviet embassy in Paris, cut his throat in his cell while believed to have been a fit of despondency here today. He is expected to recover, although his condition is critical.

Lambow was en route to Moscow. He had been recalled by the Soviet government from Paris.

$5,000,000 Property Now Under Padlock

Chicago, Oct. 17 (INS)—Property valued at more than $5,000,000 representing 15 saloons, drug stores, night clubs, speakeasies and breweries have been closed by federal padlocks this year, it was revealed here today in a federal report.

The padlocks will remain snapped to the properties until the abatements violated the federal prohibition law.

LARGEST EVENING
CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

Costly Silk Hat

REFUSAL of the Public Utilities Board to sanction a four-for-one split of Edison Illuminating shares, with a change in par value of from $100 to $25 a share, dreadfully annoys speculators and has sent the esteemed Evening Transcript into a conniption fit.

We cannot remember when it ever the Evening Transcript has taken on so about anything.

"To the layman," the Transcript says, "it seems that the episode bears close resemblance to the following imaginary set of facts. Suppose that a man possessed a costly silk hat which he desired to exchange for four different hats of less costly sort but more curled ass. And suppose also that in the town where he lived, a regulatory ordinance required that he could not make this change without the permission of the Board of Aldermen. What if the board, upon deciding this issue, should read the man a long lecture disapproving the exchange on the ground that the petitioner was born in Ukraina, that he went to church once instead of twice on Sunday, and that the cereal which he served his children at breakfast was seldom boiled long enough."

Now, where's all that about?

The Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston filed with the Department of Public Utilities its four-for-one request for a change in the par value of its stock and the Public Utilities Board said, No.

The vote was UNANIMOUS.

Nothing was said about costly silk hats, but in its decision the Commission did say many things pertinent to the issue and of interest not only to the powers that be in the Edison Company but to all the people of this community.

The Commission holds, in the first place, that NO PUBLIC INTEREST WOULD BE SERVED by such a reduction of the par value of Edison stock "at this time."

"On the other hand, it is (would be) likely to encourage the belief in the minds of many innocent people that it is the forerunner of substantial increase in dividends, with the consequent result of their investing in stock at a very high price, with out their hopes being realized."

And then the Commission began that discussion which reminds the Transcript of a lecture on Ukraina, going to church on Sunday and what cereals to give the children.

What the Public Utilities Board REALLY talked was turkey.

It talked about HATES. Where do you get the courage to come in here with these requests for favors and special privileges?" it asked the Edison Company, in effect, "and at the same time remain dumb on the subject of more reasonable prices for electricity to the householders of Greater Boston?"

Here are some observations from the decision of the Public Utilities Board, in the four-for-one stock-split matter, which contains a hint the Edison Illuminating Company of Boston might profit by a conscientious glance near them meters:

And how are the Edison rates to be BROUGHT into line with those of municipal plants, making due allowance for the fact that the municipal plant pays no taxes? (The tax paid last year by the Edison Company—by the way—was equivalent to about 0.7 cent on each kilowatt hour sold.)

Chairman Henry C. Attwill and his associates of the Public Utilities Commission propose to have FULL AND IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION of the Edison's rates.

Governor Allen—against whom his Democratic opponent last year unsuccessfully urged the "Power" issue—wants the investigation to be immediate and complete, and promises the Commission every help that may be needful to that end.

So, it looks very much as if Edison rates must either COME down or be BROUGHT down.

Which seems to answer everything except the Evening Transcript's question about the troubles of the gent with the costly silk hat.

The answer to that may be too much overcoat.

the physical conditions," he said, "under which life is possible forms only a tiny fraction of the range of physical conditions which prevail in the universe as a whole.

"The very concept of life implies duration in time; there can be no life where the atoms change their make-up millions of times a second, and no pairs of atoms can ever become joined together.

"Life also implies a certain nearness in space, and these two implications restrict life to the small range of physical conditions in which the liquid state is possible. Our survey of the universe has shown how small this range of the whole universe.

"Primeval matter must go on transforming itself into radiation for millions of millions of years to produce an infinitesimal amount of the inert ash on which life can exist. Even then this residue of ash must not be too hot or too cold, or life will be impossible. It is difficult to imagine life of any high order except on planets warmed by a sun, and even after a star has lived its life of millions of years, the chance, so far as we can calculate it, is still about a hundred thousand to one against its being a sun surrounded by planets.

"In every respect—space, time, physical conditions—life is limited to an almost inconceivably small corner of the universe."

It is limited as yet, but it is not necessarily limited to this minuscule corner. It is conceivable that organisms might arise which could have learned how to properly informed man can cope with absolute conviction that it will ever end.

The Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

"I WONDER why men marry at all these days," remarked Mrs. Dyvel. "They all seem to treat it so.

"On men of them just add no by accident," replied Mr. Dyvel, "when the thrales on their imagination of their hearts aren't available. And lots of them marry from habit or custom, just as they shave their chins, or part their hair on the left side instead of the right.

"Some men marry in a spirit of bravado, just as they go in for bonding, for guns, to prove that they are conquerors. Others are driven into marriage by the desire to 'beat' for other fellow to it, to double-cross a rival, and save the girl from throwing herself away on somebody else.

"Of course, a few old-fashioned men still marry for the purpose of securing a housekeeper, nurse and general caretaker; because they know that no mistress will have the same interest in their socks or restaurant will take the same interest in guarding their digestion, and no flirt-widow will take the same interest in saving their money and a new pair.

"Then, some men marry just to have a girl to sing and play and sentimentalize to, to stop their friends from making love to them, or to make them the women they are pursuing, believe that by tying themselves to one woman it is the same as getting yourself a ticket to the only graceful exit from a lot of foolish entanglements.

"And gratitude has inspired many a marriage as still depend on the daily nerve-powder and the absent pat, and can't even wash his own face.

"Lots of men marry out of pique when they are sore and reckless after some woman has thrown them over or made them so miserable that they want to put their name on another woman's shoulder, and be normalized with.

"And some men marry a woman simply to find out what she is not, after they have married somebody whose first name escapes him, and whose maiden name he has never heard.

"Then, lots of men are attracted to marriage, these days, by the modern 'thrift-thy' plan, which looks so simple and easy, and promises all the joys and comforts of a settled home—without any of its responsibilities and restrictions.

"It is becoming more and more popular for men to look around for a cheerful, self-supporting woman who will help bring home the bacon, and then cook it, herself. Just a jolly little running mate, who will do most of the heavy pulling, and asks absolutely nothing!

"And there was still another reason why men marry, that I had in mind. Oh, yes, I remember now! Because they are IN LOVE!

"I never thought of THAT," said Mrs. Dyvel. "But, there IS a quaint old custom, whereby a man allows himself to be led to the altar, just because he loves a woman and WANTS to marry her!"

A Fast Air Boat

An Approach to the FUTURE Airplane

LIEUTENANT WILLIAMS' PLANE
Which Did Not Start in the Schneider Race

THIS small, high-powered, twenty-four-cylinder sea-monoplane was built to compete in the Schneider Seaplane Trophy race.

To enter that race an airship must show, in preliminary trials, a speed above 300 miles an hour.

Lieutenant Williams, of the American Navy, who was to fly this boat, hoped to beat all speed records, flying above 350 miles an hour.

But the plane unfortunately had motor trouble and did not enter the competition.

You will notice that this small compact airplane, driven by a twenty-four-cylinder engine, is not much bigger than an ordinary automobile.

It has a very narrow wing spread, great engine power taking the place of wide wings that cause air resistance.

Seen here, as it starts from the water, this plane comes as near as anything thus far to what probably will be the airplane of the future, a compact body, more like a flying BULLET than a modern airplane, depending on speed MOMENTUM to keep it in the air.

A bullet going through the air, as you know, needs no wings to keep it up. The power back of it supplies the power to stay above the ground.

So with the future airplanes, flying faster than anything thus far dreamed of. They will depend on power, on engines with terrific force, flying with the speed of a bullet, requiring little in the way of wing spread to keep them up, equipped probably with wings that will be drawn in, during flight, and extended for use in landing.

The amusing thing and the fundamentally DISGRACEFUL thing about this plane, seeking to win glory for American aviation and for the American Navy, is this:

THE GOVERNMENT HAD NO FUNDS TO BUILD. COULDN'T "AFFORD IT."

Therefore it was necessary for Lieutenant Williams to raise among his friends the $175,000 that it cost to build this plane.

This country ought to be rich enough to pay for building such a machine and many like it in the way of experiment.

We have plenty of money for ridiculous coast defense guns and so-called "anti-aircraft guns" that will never hit anything.

We spend fifty millions at a time for battleships that are as worthless and out of date for war as any old hansom cab.

But the country lacks money, it seems, to spend $175,000 on speed and new experiments which are the most important things to aviation and to this country's safety.

New York Day by Day

By O. O. MINTYRE

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—In that limited world of circus, street carnival wagon and Tom show a weekly publication called The Billboard is the literary piece de resistance. Its pages breathe the atmosphere of those picturesque pitfalls around which carnivals is a fairway dismay.

To the layman it is a panorama of arrogant chatter, the arrogance of a defeat inferiority. But to troupers it speaks their own language, clear, concise, unadorned. For instance, here is one ad: Hoofer wants partner. No boozing. Will go anywhere except China. Off the hop. Have Tuxedo.

Among others seeking engagements in the same issue were: Rhythm dance drummer. Understand dirt tempos. Trumpet for jazz band, sweet, hot. Read and take. Saxophonist—pit work, sober save Xmas week. Lady blackface. Skips, sides, do comedy and piano. Also comedy juggling and flash wire.

Among the acts wanted were: Twelve "colored medicine people". Rapport for "hot" show who can do the cancan and play Ruby Dominy. Bizarre wild acrobatic. Light weight flip-flap and hand-to-hand. Trapezist and bell ringer who can do female impersonations. Iron jawed woman who can double selling tickets.

Also: Ventriloquist for mountain Dutch and Jolly four. Magic escape artist who can double in orchestra. Mind reader for Chautauqua. High diver and contortionist. Laughing patter spieler. Mirimba soloist who can operate motion picture and Balloonist with full dress suit.

From the Billboard it is gleaned that there are boa constrictors and python snakes, 5 to 18 feet long. Also Texas and Green Mexican rattlers may be purchased from the "Reptile King" in Laredo, Texas. Four ring-necked doves that do 12 tricks may be procured from Waterloo, Iowa.

Racing turtles at $5 a dozen are on sale at Protection, Kansas. Two foot Jewfish cost $50 each. Horned frogs are $3 a dozen in Coleman, Texas. Love Gila monsters, $5 each, rattlesnakes $3 a pair, and lynx cats $25 in Phoenix, Ariz., and armadillos at "cut rates" in Galveston.

The profession of sidewalk cabaret card writing languishes but has not entirely vanished. The seedy chiropodist used to drop in abandoned doorways with camp chairs and folding tables to peddle cards with his corn-cure flourish, including the sufferer's hind, at 25 cents a dozen. Sidewalk paint began November 1 this year, but there are a few left on the Bowery and lower Broadway.

The old Broadway Central on lower Broadway has abolished its famous handsome preceding sidewalk chairs for patrons. It was the last to cling to this million-dollar days when hotel proprietors were Mine Hosts and hotel clerks were celebrated for accuracy in pitching room keys into proper racks.

But the famous "grand stairway" of the Broadway Central, looming so conspicuously in the Fisk-Gridon murder, is untouched. It was dramatized in thick headlines as the scene of the shooting and is about as impressive today as a back drop in a Third Avenue theater.

"Since then," writes a New York criminologist, "the most trivial incident will inspire the most normal men to thoughts of murder."

He's been trying to dial to the Whiteman hour and got a "boo-boop-a-doop singer".

A certain hotel in the Times Square area is a hangout for three-horn gamblers, shills, cut-purses, and others of a fly-by-night gentry. It begins to buzz with life at 3 a. m. when gamblers round in for their day of sleep. The breakfast hour is at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and here one sees a motley assortment of freshly barbered men who live hard and dangerously, drinking cupfuls of strong, black coffee. Everything in life to them consists in good red bad "breaks."

From London comes: The American press now has no chance to robe and indulge a flagon of ale at the end of the day. Outside of a movie, there is nothing for him to do."

Is that so? Come on over and we'll hang a picture.
